

	Portland House	Wales Millennium Centre	Y Senedd
Tuesday	Lead Creative School pupils, teachers and artists live and at their very best, demonstrating rich activities from puppet making, to radio presenting, to combining science with music and much more! Immerse yourself with the unique Lead Creative Schools pedagogy in this grand setting.	See every element of our Wales wide programme in action. Enjoy a screening, compose your own electronic music, attend a New Curriculum briefing or check out some dance and theatre performances.
Wednesday
Thursday		In addition to above: Regional Arts and Education training sessions for teachers.
Friday		In addition to above: Seminars; Creativity in the Curriculum and Introduction to Creative Learning.	Trust your gut instinct and Go with the Flow! Experience an art installation with a difference, as a one-off special on Friday 5 April. Y Senedd will be a gateway to the inner workings of the digestive system, hand sculpted and painted by Lead Creative School pupils.
Saturday	Take the whole family over to join in with some of our most Creative Collaborators! Make music with your eyes, turn dance in to colour and sound, make a sock into a friend and embrace your inner sailor on a voyage of digital discovery.
